GLOVER GLEANINGS

GLOVER

Mrs. N. A. Smith has been quite ill the past two weeks.

Phil Davis of Burlington is spending the holidays in town.

Mrs. Lilla Dow and daughter, Grace, spent Christmas in Orleans.

Miss Grace Dow was home from Lyndon Institute for the holidays.

On account of the outbreak of scarlet fever the Grange play has been postponed, but will be given at a later date.

The men will serve supper for the Woman's Union Friday evening, Jan.
7th. Everybody come and see how they do it.

The young child of Mr. and Mrs.
P. Stone died very suddenly Monday of scarlet fever and the burial was on Tuesday.

At the regular meeting of the ladies' Mite society the following officers were chosen: President, Miss Jennie French; vice-president, Mrs. Betsey Salmon; secretary, Mrs. Emily Tilla-Rich; treasurer, Mrs. Amy Bean; directors, Mrs. Nora Simpson, Mrs.
Fannie Aldrich and Mrs. Lurene Cook.

Owing to the severe storm there was the smallest attendance Sunday we have had. Seventeen people braved the severe weather and service in the morning was held as usual. The evening service was omitted.

The pastor spoke appropriately on the subject, "The Irreparable Past." Text, Mat. 26: 45-46.

A very helpful Christmas service was held at the church Thursday evening. The meeting was marked by earnest prayer and grateful testimony.
The service was closed with the story, "The man who was too busy to find the child." Another helpful meeting is anticipated this week. Every boy is asked to bring helpful thoughts appropriate to the passing of the old and the opening of the new year.

The first service of the New Year will be held Sunday morning with brief appropriate sermon by the pastor, followed by the sacrament of the Lord's Supper.

Junior League service will be held at three o'clock.

In the evening the pastor will speak on the subject postponed from last Sunday, "A Checkered Career."

Christmas exercises were held Friday evening. While the audience was not so large as usual, owing to fear of scarlet fever, enjoyable exercises were held, consisting of recitations, songs and an appropriate story and song service by the young people, the story being by Mrs. C. S. Parker. The exercises were in charge of Mrs. Roy Christie and Mrs. O. G. Miles.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglass wish to thank the friends who so kindly remembered them with a gift of money.

WEST GLOVER

School closed Wednesday for the rest of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Bates spent Christmas with her brother, Cortes Woodard.

B. F. Jackman's people have had the electric lights installed in their new house.

G. H. Humphrey and family spent Christmas at Geo. Fisk's in Barton.

Maurice Leland of Dartmouth college is home for the Christmas vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Bean from Canadas are here to spend the holidays with their children.

M. and Mrs. O. G. Miles and daughter, Mildred, were visitors at B. F.
Jackman's recently.

Among the families to entertain friends Christmas were Mrs. Helen Cook and Mr. and Mrs. Tiehurst.

The Christmas exercises at the church were enjoyed by the children, all receiving presents from the tree.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Davis and children from Stanstead spent Christmas with her sister, Mrs. A. W. Tiehurst.

On account of the small attendance at Sunday school last Sabbath the annual election of officers was postponed until next Sunday, when it is hoped that there may be a good attendance.

The annual church meeting will be held at the school house last Tuesday, at 2 p. m. This will be preceded by dinner which will be served by the ladies of the church. It is to be hoped
as this is the important gathering of the church for the year.

NOBILITY OF WORK.

All work, even cotton spinning, is noble; work is alone noble.— Carlyle.

Whatever is worth doing at all is worth doing well.—Earl of Chesterfield.

We enjoy ourselves only in our work, our doing; and our best doing is our best enjoyment.—Jacobi.

It is better to wear out than to rust out.—Bishop Horne.

Nothing is impossible to industry.—Periander.

Never idle a moment, but thrifty and thoughtful of others.

Christmas with his mother in Lowell.

Eben Farnsworth is home from his sabbatical year in the West for the holiday vacation.

Mrs. E. A. Hollbrook and daughter, Alice, spent Christmas with her aunt in Richmond.

Master Irving Brewster of Boston is spending the week with Mr. and Mrs.
C. J. Powers.

Mrs. Mabel Cook of Randolph Center is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Cook.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Manley entertained 32 relatives and friends at their home on Christmas day.

Mr. and Mrs. Leland Herman of Conventry spent the week-end with her aunt, Mrs. M. A. Wells.

Twin boys were born to Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Macie Friday, Dec. 24, but only lived a few hours.

Misses Marjorie Sears and Helen Crawford are home from their school in St. Johnsbury for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lathrop of Lebanon, N. H., spent Monday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Drew.

Stockholders' Annual Meeting
The stockholders of the Orleans County Fair are hereby notified that the annual meeting of the above named company, will be held at Hotel Barton, January 4th, 1916, at one o'clock p. m. Officers for the ensuing year will be elected at that time, and any other business thought proper will be transacted when met.

C. R. HAMBLET, Secretary Barton, Vt., December 6, 1915.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mitchell and Sam Mitchell spent Christmas with the latter's son in Barton, while Miss Ida Mitchell went to Lyndonville to remain with her mother and sister over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hannant entertained her brother, Bradley Sanborn, and family of Woodsville, N. H., Mr. and Mrs. Orin Miles of Newport Center, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kernison of Brownington and Mr. and Mrs.
Wallace Smith on Christmas.

The union Christmas exercises held in the town hall Friday evening were very pleasing and much enjoyed by the large audience present, reflecting much credit on the committee in charge, as well as the children. The trees were well laden with presents and it is hoped everyone was remembered.

Mrs. Gero, widow of the late Samuel Gero, died Friday night after a few weeks' illness. She was 76 years of age and had been blind for a several years. She leaves three sons, John of Burke, Peter of Lowell and Joseph of this place. Funeral services were held at Lowell Monday and interment was at that place.

CONG. CHURCH NOTES
A good way to forget your cares and worry is to attend church on Sunday morning and Sunday evening. The Congregational church is always glad to welcome strangers and residents not of worshipping elsewhere. The morning service begins at 10:45. Bible school at 12 and the evening service at 7:30 o'clock.

We wish for every member of our church and every person in Irassburg and for the editor of the Monitor 366 happy days in 1916. The best way to be happy is to serve God, live simply, and church, be a good neighbor, a kind friend and a generous giver of your strength and means to make others happy.

METHODIST CHURCH NOTES
The pastor takes this opportunity to wish you all a Happy New Year. Let us all unite to make this a very successful year for the church and the cause it represents.

You are invited to the services of the church Sunday. Morning worship at 10:45. Subject of the sermon, "Let Us Forget." The communion service will be held after the sermon. Bible school at 12 m. The officers and teachers will be chosen for the new year at this time.

The two churches will unite to observe the week of prayer next week.
Meetings will be held at the Methodist church on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday evenings and at the Congregational church on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings. The meetings will begin at 7:30. The Rev. R. F. Lowe of St. Johnsbury will preach on the first two evenings and other speakers will be announced later.

at the home of John Goss on Christmas day.

Mrs. Della Babcock was at her home in South Water several days last week.

Robert Willey visited several days last week at his grandmother's in Waterville.

The Greensboro cornet band will give a concert in the town hall on Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Carter are rejoicing over the arrival of a son at their home Dec. 18th.

Mrs. W. H. Rollins returned Thursday from a four months' visit at her father's home in Douglass, Ariz.

The annual meeting of the Greensboro Fire District No. 1 will be held at the hose house Monday at 2 o'clock.

The two churches had small numbers at their services Sunday owing to the severe storm that swept over this section.

The Misses Alger of Jericho are spending the holidays at the home of their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. A.
E. Perrin.

Luther Smith of Andover seminary, Cambridge, Mass., is at the home of his father, T. Frank Smith, for a two weeks' vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Patterson and son of Cambridge visited at the home of Mrs. Patterson's sister, Mrs. E. M.

Sunday evening at 7 o'clock will be the pastor's aid committee, Guy Allen, Ralph Williams, C. H. Miller, J. H.
Barrington.

Estella Goodrich, who recently underwent an operation at the Barre hospital, was at her home here Christmas but will return to the hospital for further treatment.

Herman Piper was buried in the cemetery here Sunday afternoon. The committal service was read at the grave by Rev. Mr. Shaw of the Methodist church at the Bend.

Mrs. C. F. Richards returned last week from New York City where she made an extended visit to her two sisters, one of whom, Miss Dorothy Morgan, is well known here.

All those who know Mrs. Harriet Farr of Richmond will regret to know that she has been in the Mary Fletcher hospital in Burlington and has undergone a serious operation.

Bruce Buchanan of the U. V. M. was in town Thursday at the home of his brother, R. O. Buchanan, and will spend his vacation of two weeks at the home of his mother, Mrs. Robert Buchanan committee: Mrs. A. E. Perrin, Mrs.

H. H. Haines, Mrs. A. B. DeBrune, Mrs. Frank Dow and Mrs. David Speir.

The Community Christmas concert and tree held at the town hall Friday evening was a great success and the general desire is that this method of observing the occasion be continued.
Much credit is due the committee in charge for the success of the evening.

Quite a little excitement was created Sunday evening when the chimney on the house of Joe DeBrune took fire and burned fiercely. The fire department took the fire hose from the fire house but did not need to use water as some chemical fire extinguishers soon put the fire out. There was but little damage to the building.

The "Vigilants," a class of young people in the Congregational Sunday school, held their annual house of
